

Privacy and Personal Space: The Challenges of Technology in Justice

Online Conference, Friday, 11th December, 2020

- 09.45 - 09.50 Welcome Address
Maura Butler, Chairperson, ACJRD
- 09.50 - 10.10 Launch of Conference
The Minister for Justice and Equality, Helen McEntee T.D.
- 10.10 - 10.30 Universal Data Retention for Public Safety in Criminal Matters
John Fitzgerald S.C.
- 10.30 - 10.50 The Relationship Between Privacy and Crime Fighting/European Context (working title)
Dr Gemma Davies, Associate Professor at Northumbria Law School
- 10.50 – 11.05 Questions & Answers
- 11.05 - 11.35 Coffee Break
- 11.35 - 12.35 Workshops - Four morning Workshops, see details on following page
- 12.35 - 13.35 Lunch
- 13.35 - 13.55 Cybersecurity and Privacy
Mark Brosnan, MD & Co-Founder, Get Visibility
- 13.55 – 14.15 Surveillance and the Rule of Law
Dr. TJ McIntyre, Chair of Digital Rights Ireland and Law Lecturer, UCD
- 14.15 – 14.30 Questions & Answers
- 14.30 – 15.00 Coffee Break
- 15.00 – 16.00 Workshops - Four afternoon Workshops, see details on following page
- 16.00 – 16.10 Conference Outcomes and Closing

Privacy and Personal Space: The Challenges of Technology in Justice

Workshops

Please Note: 1st and 2nd choice workshop preferences for each session must be given when completing the booking form.

Morning Workshop Session 11.35 – 12.35

1. Encryption and Retention: Data Challenges in the Criminal Process

Liam Herrick, Executive Director, Irish Council for Civil Liberties (ICCL) and Olga Cronin Policy Officer on the ICCL and International Network of Civil Liberties Organisations (INCLO)'s shared Information Rights Programme

2. Managing Investigations in the Workplace - Technological Benefits and Risks

Kate Harnett, Associate, White Collar Crime, A & L Goodbody

3. Disclosure in Criminal Trials – Sexual Offences

Dr Susan Leahy, School of Law, University of Limerick and Susan Hudson, Solicitor, Office of the DPP

4. Obtaining and Retaining Data in the Irish Prison Service

Dr Caroline Finn, IGEES Policy Analyst (Assistant Principal), Irish Prison Service

Afternoon Workshop Session 15.00 – 16.00

5. Media Intrusion on Privacy During Due Process versus Freedom of Speech

Aoife McNicholl, Solicitor, Sheehan & Partners

6. The Challenges of Cyber Fraud (working title)

Detective Chief Superintendent Pat Lordan, Garda National Economic Crime Bureau

7. The DNA Database

Deirdre Duffy BL, Human Rights Expert Member, DNA Database System Oversight Committee

8. Offender Data: Privacy, Public Safety and Rehabilitation

Fiona Ní Chinnéide, Executive Director, and Molly Joyce, Legal and Public Affairs Manager, Irish Penal Reform Trust